

STUDENT CHAPTER

TWISTERS

Event description:

This will be an individual participation event comprising of two rounds. In the first round participants will be given some English as well as Hindi idioms. They have to fill in the blanks to complete the idioms. For eg. Out of the _____. The answer to this would be “blue”, thus completing the idiom “out of the blue”.

Top 10 scorers of the first round will move on to the second round in which each participant has to frame his/her own tongue twister which should not be of not more than 10 words. Now chits numbered from 1 to 10 will be put in a bowl and each participant will be assigned a number as well. Every participant has to select a chit and if the 1st participant gets a chit numbered 5 , then contestant number 5 has to recite the tongue twister created by contestant number 5 . Participants will be judged upon how well they are able to recite the tongue twisters as well as on the basis of the twister they make .
